GATEWAY TOWER PROJECT

HL Development and Harvey Lindsay Commercial Real Estate are moving closer to announcing the new Gateway Tower project at the northeast corner of St. Paul's Boulevard and Waterside Drive.

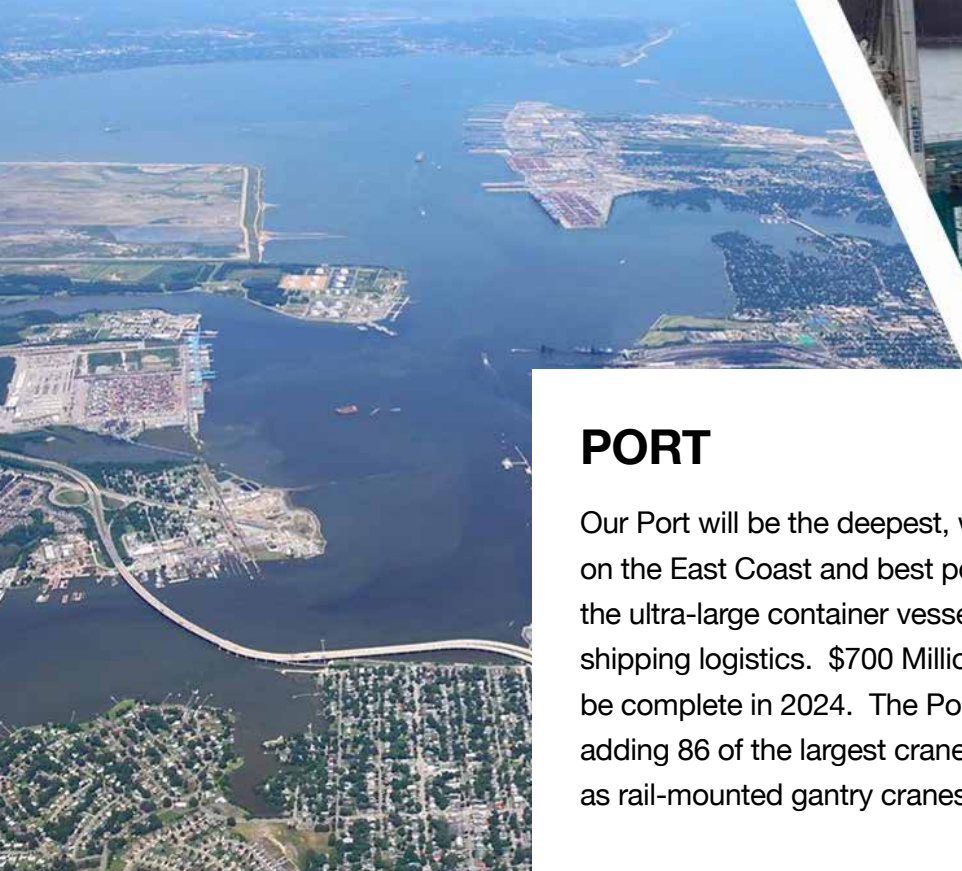

The planned state-of-the-art, energy-efficient office building will feature best in class technology integration to support a collaborative and healthy building environment. The project will also feature the latest site and building resiliency solutions as part of a mixed use, master planned site. Hanbury Architects serves as the project's design team.

DIGITAL PORT

Five Southside cities will be connected by approximately 100 miles of fiber-optic connections from two trans-Atlantic cables, The Marea (Spain) and Brusa (Brazi). This Regional Connectivity Ring backbone will expand affordable broadband access to underserved and unserved communities as well as advance innovation, improve educational opportunities and attract business investment with the fastest internet speeds available in the USA. The HRPDC has established a Regional Broadband Steering Committee and is spearheading the collaborative project. A cost analysis study is underway.

PORT

Our Port will be the deepest, with ice free channels on the East Coast and best positioned to accept the ultra-large container vessels revolutionizing shipping logistics. $700 Million in investment will be complete in 2024. The Port is in the process of adding 86 of the largest cranes in the world known as rail-mounted gantry cranes by 2020.

FEDERAL PARTNERSHIPS

Mayor Alexander has visited the White House and the U.S. Capitol to tell Norfolk's story. Joining mayors from other great cities in America, this has presented an opportunity to work across party lines to forge consensus and get things done. Norfolk has created a direct line to our federal partners which is greatly benefitting our city.

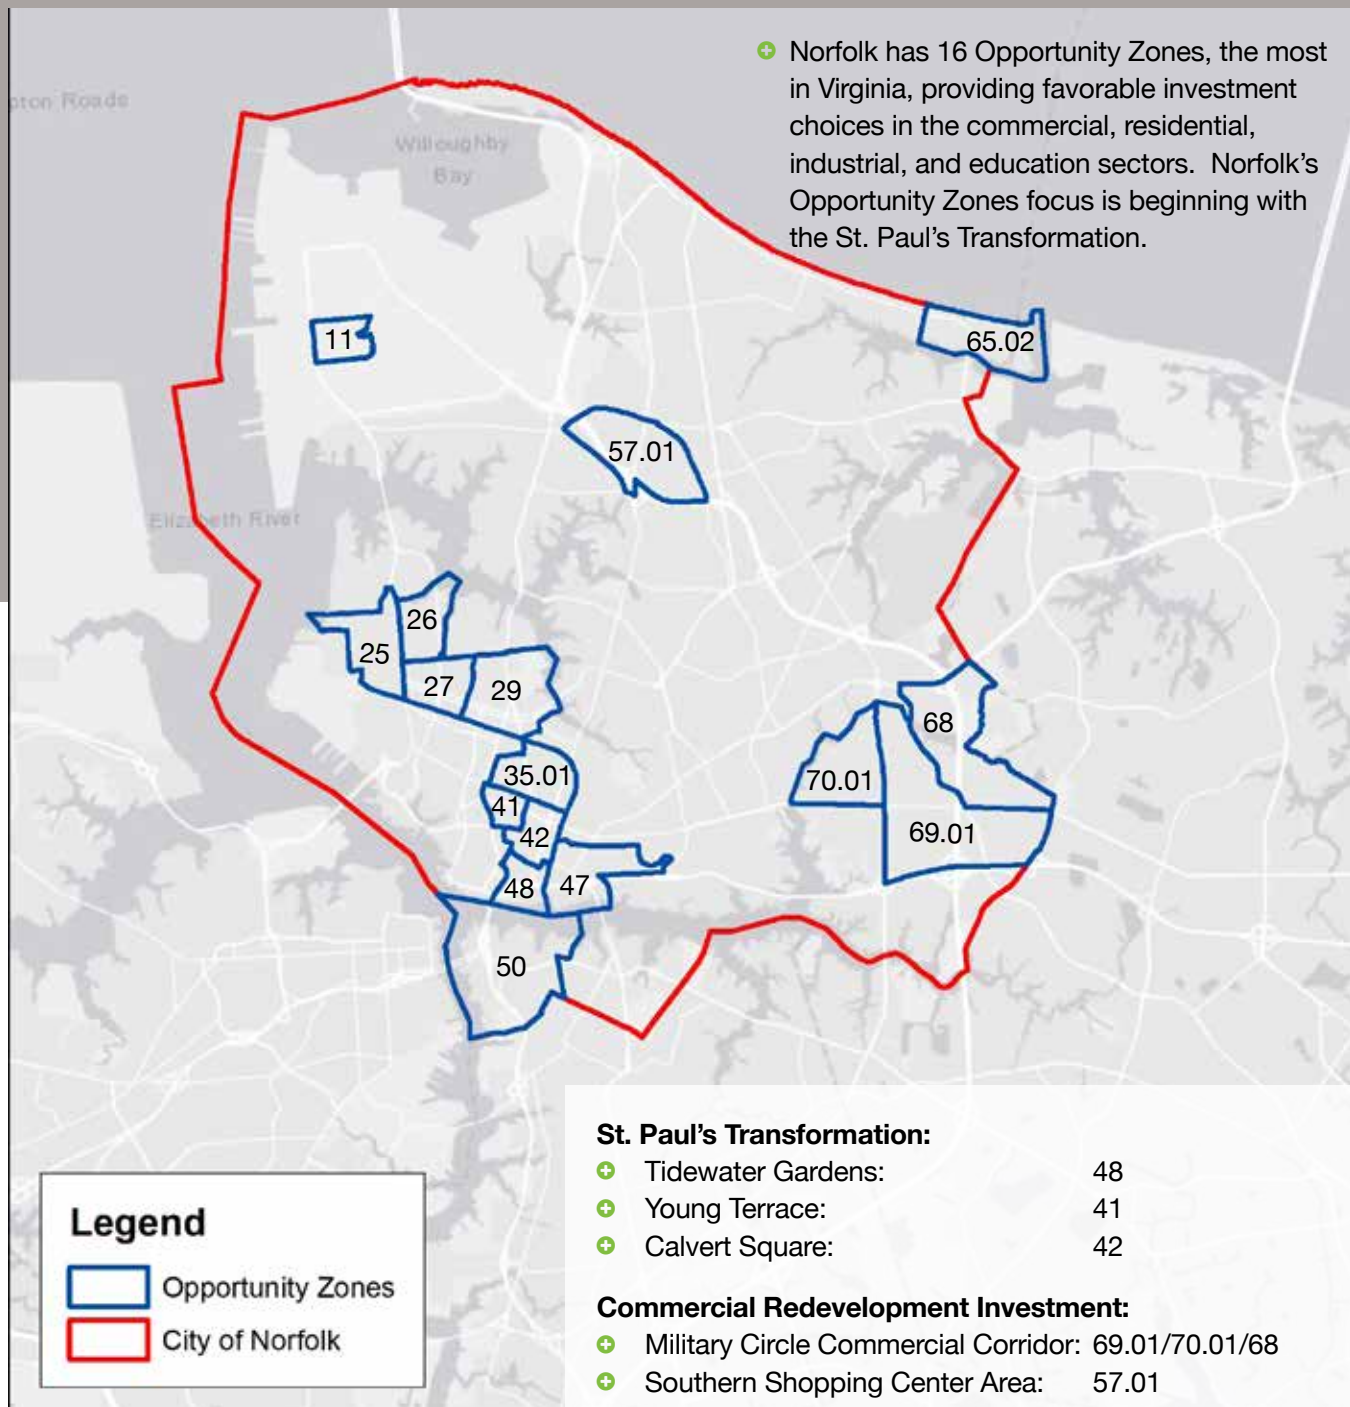

OFFSHORE WIND INDUSTRY

In December 2018 the Commonwealth issued a major roadmap for the offshore wind supply chain in Virginia. There are big opportunities for businesses in the region including Colonna's Shipyard, General Dynamics Ligon Street Yard and others in our city to support this growing industry.

In January, the HRPDC announced its support for offshore wind development off the coast of Virginia with the support of the cities of Norfolk and Virginia Beach, the Virginia and HR Chamber, Reinvent HR and the Northern Virginia Regional Commission.

NORFOLK OPPORTUNITY ZONES

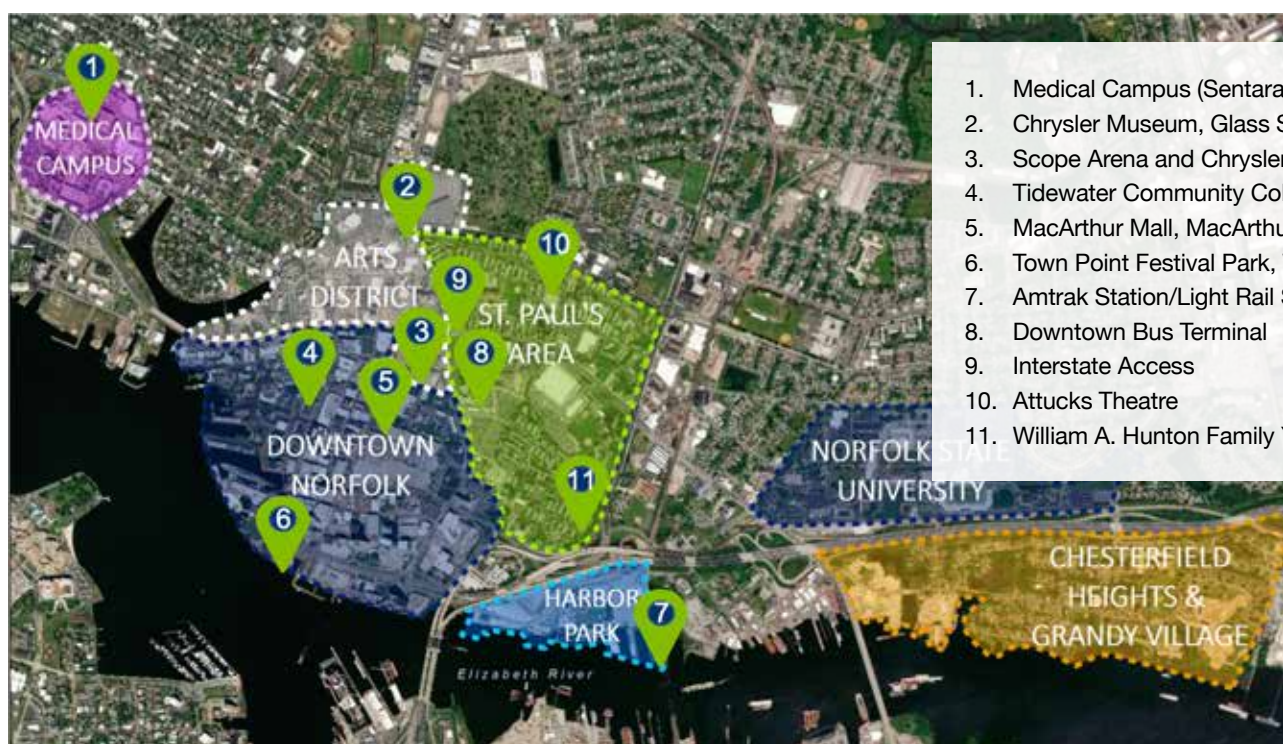

An Opportunity Zone is a portion of an economically-distressed community where new investments, under certain conditions, may be eligible for preferential tax treatment. Localities qualify as Opportunity Zones if they have been nominated for that designation by the state and that nomination has been certified by the Secretary of the U.S. Treasury via his delegation authority to the Internal Revenue Service. Opportunity Zones were added to the tax code by the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act on December 22, 2017.

ST. PAUL'S TRANSFORMATION: THE VISION

Building An Inclusive and Resilient Community

ASSETS IN PROXIMITY TO ST. PAUL'S

RESILIENCE

The City Manager's Office of Resilience implements Norfolk's resilience strategy. That strategy is driven by three community identified goals:

- Design the coastal community of the future
- Create economic opportunity by advancing efforts to grow existing and new industry sectors
- Advance initiatives to connect communities, deconcentrate poverty, and strengthen neighborhoods

The Resilience Office uses a collaborative approach to advance these goals. Working with other city departments, nonprofits, businesses, volunteers and national and international experts, it is working to develop and implement strategies that advance multiple goals at the same time.

Brownfields Grants

The Resilience Office is working with Economic Development and Neighborhood Development to use State and Federal grants to revitalize underdeveloped parcels in the City. Harbor Park, the St. Paul's area and Hampton Blvd. are targeted for environmental assessments and remediation work to enhance the economic development potential of important underutilized city-owned parcels. One parcel in Harbor Park will be redeveloped as a pop-up park to give residents another opportunity to enjoy the downtown waterfront.

Smart City Sensors

The Resilience Office is working with the City's Right of Way and Public Works Department to test low-cost sensors that have the capability to detect water levels, optimize flood infrastructure effectiveness, and inform residents of flood risk. Currently over 40 sensors are collecting data that will allow the city to better understand and respond to flood risk.

Retain Your Rain

The Resilience Office is working with RPOS and Public Works to offer civic leagues and other nonprofit organizations in Norfolk grants to design and install innovative water retention systems. Grants offered twice annually have resulted in the installation of community rain gardens and a food forest to help capture stormwater runoff and reduce flooding.

Bank On

To ensure our residents don't get trapped in the expensive cycle of pay-day loans, the Resilience Office partners with local nonprofits, community volunteers and banks to offer Bank On, a 10 month program that teaches financial management and creates saving plans that helps build an emergency savings account for individuals that helps them avoid predatory lenders.

Ballentine Boulevard Fishing Pier

OHIO CREEK WATERSHED PROJECT

The Commonwealth of Virginia, through the Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) and the City of Norfolk, was awarded a $112 Million grant for the Ohio Creek Watershed Project.

The project was selected by the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) through the National Disaster Resilience Competition (NDRC) process and was awarded Community Development Block Grant Disaster Recovery (CDBG-DR) funding.

This project is part of Norfolk's resilience strategy and supports its three goals: designing a coastal community capable of dealing with the increased risk of flooding, creating economic opportunity by advancing efforts to grow existing and new industry sectors, and advancing initiatives to connect communities, deconcentrate poverty, and strengthen neighborhoods. The design team, with input from multiple planning charrettes, work sessions and public meetings, has identified the following key project elements: coastal defense, tidal shorelines, stormwater management, transportation infrastructure, and landscape and community amenities.

Construction is starting early summer of 2019 and is to be completed summer 2022.

Resilience Park

The Resilience Park will connect the Grandy Village and Chesterfield Heights neighborhoods and includes a flood berm, a restored tidal creek and wetland and other environmental features as well as a multi-use sports field and places for community gatherings, sports and play. Resilience Park strives to be a model for resilient open space that is uniquely Norfolk.

SENTARA LEIGH ORTHOPEDIC MEDICAL OFFICE BUILDING

A $29 Million, 50,000 SF orthopedic building north of campus is under construction.

HEALTHCARE

SENTARA LEIGH CANCER CENTER

The new $93 Million Sentara Cancer Center will bring together expert care teams from Sentara Medical Group, Eastern Virginia Medical School (EVMS), Virginia Oncology Associates, and other community physicians to provide compassionate, personalized cancer care. Outpatient oncology services centralized in one cancer center will give patients and their families access to a single location for multiple appointments and treatments in a healing environment. Cancer rates are expected to grow 36% by 2030. The project completion is expected mid-2020.

EASTERN VIRGINIA MEDICAL SCHOOL (EVMS)

This $80 Million, 11-story tower New Education and Administrative Building is currently under construction and expected to be complete in 2020. It will be named Waitzer Hall in recognition of a gift to the EVMS capital campaign from the Leah and Richard Waitzer Foundation. It is the largest family gift ever made to EVMS.

SENTARA HEART HOSPITAL

For the 18th straight year, the Cardiology & Heart Program at Sentara Norfolk General Hospital has been ranked among the nation's Top 50 heart programs in the U.S. News and World Report's "Best Hospitals" edition.

The first exhibit features art, more than 300 works in all, primarily from the Barry family's personal collection including 20th-century American modernist paintings, international glass sculptures, historic dolls and European automata.

ODU CHEMISTRY & BIOCHEMISTRY BUILDING

The 110,000 SF building is expected to be complete in 2020. The building will house a state-of-the-art Digital Theater to serve as both a planetarium and a chemistry lecture hall. The building will also house the chemistry and biochemistry laboratories for both undergraduate and graduate studies.

ODU CENTER FOR INNOVATION AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP

ODU Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship will be located in Downtown Norfolk. The OpenSeas Technology Hub will be a center for Innovation in Maritime Trade, Transportation, Logistics and BlueTech Products and Services. This Hub will join others in London, England; Marseille, France; Haifa, Israel; and New York City to bring business opportunities to local companies and an opportunity for foreign investment here in Norfolk. The Hub will showcase ODU and Norfolk as a world leader in maritime and transportation technologies.

NSU RESIDENTIAL HOUSING COMPLEX

The four-story residential facility will include 193,424 square feet and 740 beds for first-year students. The amenity space, which connects the two residential wings, will house offices, conference room, resource production space, fitness room, movement/yoga studio, multipurpose room, group study space, community kitchen, theater, and an open gaming space. Expected completion is December 2019.

NSU CYBERSECURITY LAB

A 6,000 SF facility, $4 Million lab, supports NSU as a leader in cybersecurity education and research. The facility has forensic lab instruments and programming such as cybersecurity psychology.

GWC BROWN MEMORIAL HALL

The hall is a new 3-story, 154,000 SF Classroom and Performing Arts Building. It includes The Mainstage Theater, a 350-seat state-of-the-art proscenium theater. Also, the Hall features a 99-seat Amphitheater as well as a revolving black box Studio Theater.

NORFOLK STATE UNIVERSITY INNOVATION CENTER ON MAIN STREET DOWNTOWN

The Center's stated goal is to harness the university's "knowledge, experience, and the expertise in entrepreneurship to serve underserved communities, namely, African Americans, women and veterans." As such, it will advance the City's people-first oriented economic development goals and provide NSU with a bridge to our thriving Downtown.

NSU CAMPUS ENTRANCE

The new Park Avenue entrance has pedestrian entry points and includes a realignment of Presidential Parkway.

EDUCATION

TIDEWATER COMMUNITY COLLEGE CENTER FOR VISUAL & CULINARY ARTS

The Perry Center will be a 47,000 SF building will include TCC academic programs and offer dual-enrollment and workforce training. It will feature five culinary program kitchens and a test kitchen open to the public and entrepreneurs. The Culinary Arts and Restaurant Management college will be named for its benefactor, Mr. Houston Odom. The completion is scheduled for 2021.

TCC SKILLED TRADES ACADEMY

A new 20,000 SF learning center offers state-of-the-art training for in-demand construction and maritime trades for our region. This short-term workforce training is under the direction of the Center for Workforce Solutions. TCC offers a broad range of certification programs throughout the region.

GOVERNOR'S SCHOOL FOR THE ARTS

The school has increased enrollment this year thanks to the expanded facilities and continues to flourish with partnerships including the Virginia Arts Festival, Virginia Symphony, Virginia Opera and Virginia Stage Company. The 2018 graduating class garnered over $9.4 Million dollars in scholarships and enrolled in some of most the prestigious arts school in the country. The school presents over 50 performances and exhibitions a year. Photo credit: John Wadsworth, art by Ava Borte, class of 2018 and Visual Art Students.

NORFOLK TECHNICAL CENTER (NTC)

NTC carpentry students are in partnership with the Friends of the Norfolk Public Libraries. The partnership allows students to build little libraries to connect with the community.

MODEL NATO CHALLENGE

This is a scholarship competition in which the top 29 applicants along with 6 alternates are chosen to participate in a mock global crisis simulation, confronting issues facing today's NATO Alliance. It is run by actual international NATO personnel. Student Diplomats must work together to address a crisis scenario such a piracy, immigration or another issue that faces the NATO Alliance today. Student Diplomats are assigned mentors, military officers from each of the 29 countries, who assist in preparing the students for the challenge while teaching them about their culture, national military resources and political backgrounds. The 2019 event host is Virginia Wesleyan University.

Visit Attucks100.com to view the documentary and for a complete year-long schedule of events.

VIRGINIA ARTS FESTIVAL

2019 brings the Dance Theatre of Harlem with a dazzling program that includes a world premiere commissioned by the Festival and the 2019 Commemoration, American Evolution. The new ballet's world premiere performances in Norfolk are a "Signature Event" of American Evolution, which marks and commemorates historical events in 1619, including the arrival of the first recorded Africans to English North America and the recruitment of English women in significant numbers to the colony, a pivotal year in the history of Virginia and the nation.

BROADWAY IN NORFOLK

Broadway in Norfolk's 2019-2020 season will feature Hamilton, winner of a record-setting 16 Tony nominations in 2016, and winner of 11, including best musical. It was also the winner of the 2016 Grammy award for Best Musical Theater album and the 2016 Pulitzer Prize for drama. The season will also feature The Band's Visit, winner of 10 2018 Tony awards including Best Musical.

HARBOR PARK IMPROVEMENTS

Harbor Park will be brighter this year with new $430,000 LED lighting system surrounding the field and will provide more direct light and excitement to the field. The new lights can also change color and strobe. Five games this season will be focused on welcoming the Hispanic/Latino community. The Pagritos de Norfolk (Baby Birds of Norfolk) is a shout out to the Baltimore Orioles, of which The Tides is farm team.

The growth of tourism and Norfolk's capacity to entertain visitors and residents alike is evident in approximately $40 Million in recent improvements to our existing Sheraton Waterside and Marriott Waterside Downtown hotels.

TRU HOTEL

Tru Hotel is coming to Norfolk near the Simon Norfolk Premium Outlet. The 98-room, 4-story hotel is Hilton's newest brand designed for the young-at-heart. Tru features a large lobby with a market, games, lounge, work space and of course, modern rooms and amenities.

GLASS LIGHT AUTOGRAPH HOTEL & PERRY GLASS GALLERY

Opening late summer 2019, this boutique hotel and glass gallery will host exceptional works of glass art by world renowned artists such as Dale Chihuly, Peter Bremers and Lino Tagliapietra. The hotel will have 117 rooms and a ground floor restaurant with a Michelin star chef. Meeting and event space will seamlessly connect to the gallery. The Glass Light Hotel and Perry Glass Gallery is a $30 Million investment.

VIRGINIA ZOO NATURE PLAY

A $25,000 donation by the Rotary Club of Norfolk is supporting a nearly one-acre play area located near the Zoo's Flora Point section of the park. Nature Play will feature tree stumps and pieces to be used as climbing, walking, and jumping structures, as well as a sandbox for digging, a sensory walk, willow tunnel and a bamboo maze. In addition to being open to the public daily for free-play, the area will be utilized for informal, free programming from the Education Department.

NORFOLK BOTANICAL GARDEN

The Garden encompasses 175 acres and 15 miles of paths. The Garden strives to enrich life by promoting the enjoyment of plants and the environment through beautiful gardens and educational programs. It receives approximately 400,000 visitors. In 2018, Norfolk Botanical Garden's Million Bulb Walk/Dominion Energy Garden of Lights placed 2nd in USA Today's 10 Best Botanical Garden Holiday Lights.

NORFOLK WORKS

Norfolk’s award-winning Norfolk Works program continues to connect Norfolk residents to expanding employers and new Norfolk businesses, such as IKEA Norfolk, assisting in the recruitment of more than 250 full time jobs, and 75 seasonal. Norfolk Works is collaborating with the US Census Bureau to help fill more than 1,000 job openings for the decennial census, many paying $18 per hour. Since its start in December 2016, Norfolk Works has now completed more than 30 employment projects supporting over 1,400 job offers. In the summer of 2018, Norfolk Works expanded its job resource center’s hours and capacity to serve more residents.

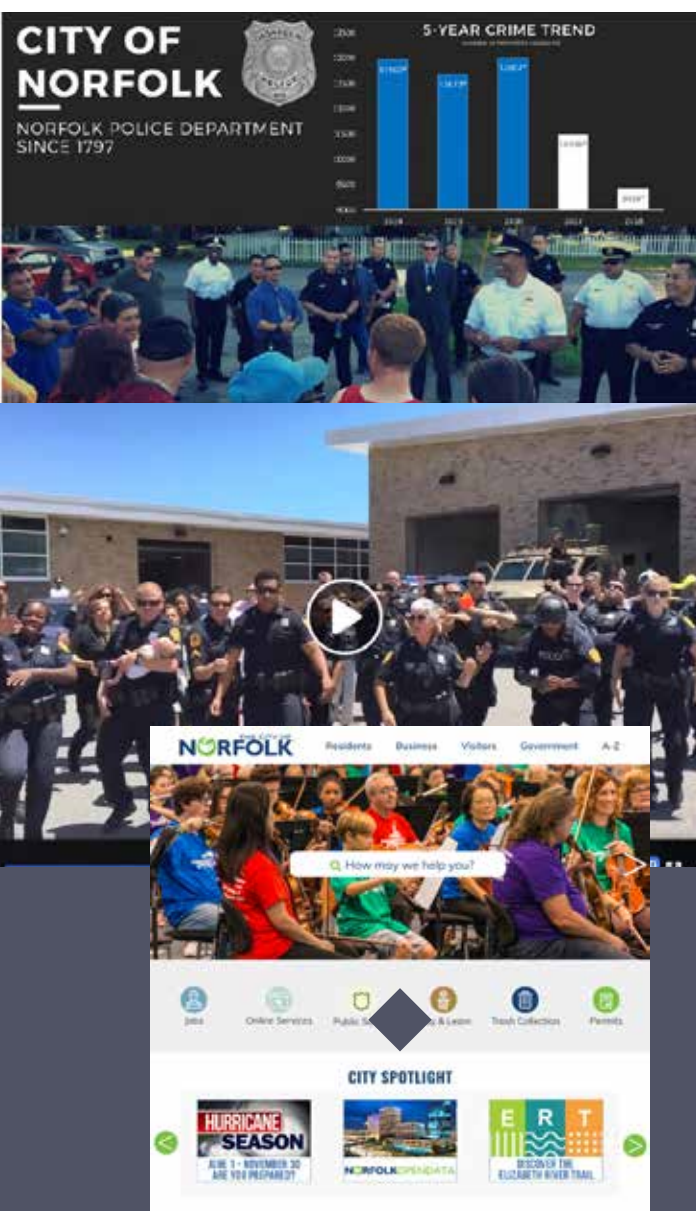

DIGITAL CITY

The Center for Digital Government (CDG) announced Norfolk, VA as among the top 10 winners of the 2018 Digital Cities Survey cities in the 125,000 to 249,999 population category. Norfolk has been ranked as a top ten Digital City for the past three years. The Digital Cities Survey summarized Norfolk’s win on its website: Norfolk created its open data policy in 2017 and launched its data portal in March, 2018, giving residents free 24/7 access to information such as the Norfolk Cares call center, permits and streetlights.

OPEN DATA

Norfolk’s Open Data team is working with the Sunlight Foundation on a Tactical Data Engagement. The foundation is guiding Norfolk in identifying an issue that can be solved with data: resilience and flooding. The Open Data portal currently has 20 data sets.

CITY HIGHLIGHTS

WEBSITE

Norfolk's new website brings simplistic design to assist the user in wayfinding, the site will be mobile friendly and feature the most popular search items on the front page. The new CivicPlus platform has additional capabilities and will allow for OpenGov shared communications from our engaged community. Norfolk.Gov's new design previews summer, 2019.

2019 RATING AGENCIES REPORT

Standard & Poor's Global Ratings ("S&P") maintained its positive outlook and joined Fitch Ratings ("Fitch") and Moody's Investors Service ("Moody's") in affirming the strong credit rating on the City's existing long-term ratings. S&P highlighted Norfolk's "strong economy," its "very strong management, with strong financial policies" and S&P Maintains Positive Outlook, Moody's and Fitch Affirm Norfolk's Strong Credit Ratings. The ratings are AA+, AA+ and Aa2 respectively.

NORFOLK POLICE DEPARTMENT

CRIME REDUCTION

The Norfolk Police Department celebrated the end of 2018 with the lowest recorded crime in 34 years. The women and men of NPD, working in partnership with the community, State and Federal partners and the support of City Council are largely responsible for these historic double-digit crime reductions to include:

- 30% reduction in violent crime since 2016
- 21% reduction in total crime since 2016
- 42% reduction in fatal/non-fatal shootings since 2016

SIGNATURE OUTREACH INITIATIVES

Norfolk Police Department was selected among hundreds of cities and police departments to feature 3 of their signature community outreach initiatives at the National Civic League Conference in Denver, Colorado. The purpose was to highlight impactful outreach for citizens, that produce meaningful outcomes, using the 21st Century community policing model. The three initiatives recognized include Clergy Patrol, Cops & Curls and Five-0 & Fades.

NORFOLK POLICE LIP-SYNC VIDEO

Norfolk Police garnered unprecedented positive national attention for the City of Norfolk, and law enforcement officers from around the country, when Norfolk officers accepted a friendly challenge from the Corinth Police Department (TX) to produce a NPD lip-sync video.

As a result of accepting the challenge, the eyes of the world landed on Norfolk Police Department's Facebook page with over 78 Million views of the lip-sync video, and a more humanizing optic for police officers, and a $5000 grant from the MASIE Foundation during the 2018 Learning Conference in Orlando, Florida. This video is reflective of the harmonious work environment established under the leadership of Chief Larry Boone.

CITY HIGHLIGHTS

NORFOLK FIRE AND RESCUE

Service delivery is more than fire calls and medical emergencies. Innovative approaches to technically challenging calls such as hazardous material responses, technical rescue responses and water rescue emergencies are answered by firefighters who are properly trained and prepared to respond on these calls. Norfolk Fire & Rescue professionals are also providing free smoke detectors, Hands-Only CPR training, Stop the Bleed training and PulsePoint.

AGILE TEAM NORFOLK TRAINING

The City's initiative to create a culture of innovation among all levels of Team Norfolk is finishing a successful first year. More than 250 employees representing 24 departments have completed training which has given them the tools and knowledge to increase efficient delivery of services and to enhance the quality of services for citizens.

NORFOLK EMERGING LEADERS (NEL)

The City of Norfolk is excited to provide meaningful and educational employment opportunities to Norfolk young adults through the Norfolk Emerging Leaders (NEL) program. NEL participants not only gain valuable work experience, but also take part in work readiness and financial planning workshops, network with city employees, and participate in workshops with community leaders. The program is divided into two employment opportunities: Emerging Leaders and Municipal Interns. All NEL positions are paid and full-time (40 hours/week).

NORFOLK PUBLIC LIBRARIES SERVE MORE THAN 1 MILLION IN 2018

Norfolk Public Libraries continue to perform as a partner in citizen engagement and an important resource for our community. In 2018, 1,119,718 visits were made to our libraries. Of these visits, 292,341 were for computer usage.

MERMAIDS – A 20 YEAR CELEBRATION

In 1999, Peter and Bess Decker spearheaded the Norfolk Mermaid Project. Norfolk is known as the “Mermaid City” and in honor of her 20 year anniversary as our mascot, our community is asking for you to snap a “shellfie” with a mermaid and post to social media using the #Mermaid20 and #NorfolkVA hashtags.

CITY HIGHLIGHTS

PUBLIC ART WELCOMES VISITORS

Norfolk Public Arts has selected a sculpture for the intersection gateway of the Norfolk International Airport and Azalea Garden Road. The proposed Heron sculpture will be approximately 30 feet tall and 40 feet wide with a depth of 8 feet. The sculpture will be constructed of aluminum incorporating aluminum parts that are recycled from decommissioned airplanes.

JOINT WATER AGREEMENT

Norfolk and Virginia Beach entered into a historic new water agreement that will continue the successful partnership the two cities that has been in place for 20 years. Norfolk will continue, under this new agreement, to provide Virginia Beach dependable and long-term water treatment services, until 2060. This new agreement will also provide Virginia Beach with 10 million gallons per day of surplus raw water. Norfolk will provide this raw water to Virginia Beach at the same price it provides raw water to Chesapeake and the Western Tidewater Water Authority. The revenue derived from this agreement will help renew and improve Norfolk's water system, which will ensure continued delivery of the highest quality of water to this region.

DOWNTOWN NORFOLK PLAN 2030

The City of Norfolk undertakes a plan update once every ten years and it is an important process that keeps development, infrastructure, and services aligned with our vision for the City. In the past, Norfolk was able to revitalize Downtown because the plan connected to, and drew from, the strengths of the neighborhoods. Downtown will leverage its strength and bring vitality to the NEON District, St. Paul's Area, Fort Norfolk, and beyond.

CENSUS 2020

For everyone that goes uncounted, it is estimated that a minimum of $2,000 of federal dollars to support Norfolk's needs is lost annually, or $20,000 per individual for 10 years. The count results are used to reapportion the House of Representatives in determining how many seats each state will have. The results are used to redraw the boundaries of congressional and state legislative districts to adapt to population shifts.

YOUR NORFOLK. YOUR LIFE.

In addition to the “Your Norfolk. Your Life.” YouTube video series, a monthly emailed newsletter of the same name is delivered directly to subscriber inboxes connecting readers to our urban, waterfront community. The newsletters include articles about city projects and programs, features on city staff, surveys, events and more. Subscribe by visiting www.norfolk.gov and click on the newsletter box on the bottom of the homepage.

KNOW YOUR ZONE

Norfolk is leading an outreach campaign on the Know Your Zone program. The campaign’s goal is to educate residents and businesses on how to both understand and identify what zone they’re located in, and also to obtain evacuation information and alerts. Zone-specific stickers are available for business storefronts from the EOC.

COMPLETE STREETS

The City has embarked on a new paradigm for multimodal transportation that will provide a range of mobility options to support all residents, businesses and visitors. The Department of Transit aims to achieve complete, safe and healthy streets that support a “people first” mindset that establishes a tone that our public rights-of-way must accommodate all users.

DRIVE NOW – CDL COMMERCIAL DRIVER PROGRAM

This free program is the result of a new partnership with TCC Jobs Skills Training, Hampton Roads Transit and NorfolkWorks. Successful students will receive a livable wage at 5 weeks and benefits within 60 days of employment as well as a path for a career in transportation.

ARTIST IN-RESIDENCE (AIR)

The City’s new artist in-residence will work alongside city employees and the community to reimagine aspects of civic life, stimulate outside-the-box thinking, weave artistic spirit into city government and help write the next chapter of Norfolk’s history through significant artistic contributions.

NORFOLK THEATER FESTIVAL

Norfolk is one of the most theatre-rich cities in Virginia, a diverse community full of spirited audiences in venues large and small. The 2019 inaugural Norfolk Theatre Festival celebrated Norfolk’s role as a cultural destination. It featured unforgettable shows, behind-the-scenes events, and more in a whirlwind Valentine’s Day weekend.

EXPERIENCE NORFOLK

The largest collection of naval operations in the world that touch every branch of the armed services, and home to the future of global security – NATO Allied Command Transformation

A city where the Chesapeake Bay meets the Atlantic Ocean

The epic center of Hampton Roads

A city at the forefront of global trade

A city where an entrepreneur can create a start-up, scale their business, and achieve sustainable growth

The commercial, financial, industrial, and retail center of the region

A city fighting crime and becoming safer every day

A city confronting the growing intensity of natural disasters that threaten social and economic stability by leading in coastal resilience and climate change mitigation

A city where you can earn an industry recognized certification, PhD, or medical degree

A city creating broadband networks, promoting cyber security, and connecting infrastructure and innovation to grow our economy

A city leading the region in arts and culture, emerging as a national tourist destination

A city transforming conditions of poverty to states of prosperity

A vibrant city, a resilient city, a healthy city, and an economically thriving city of the future

— Mayor Kenneth Cooper Alexander
