

NORFOLK

EDUCATION HUB ASSETS

OUR MSA HAS MORE THAN 90,000 STUDENTS ATTENDING HIGHER ED INSTITUTIONS

Annual economic impact reported in 2017 was $1.2 Billion, up 21.4% from 2012. 9,208 applicants for 564 spots in the medical and health professions educational 2017-2018 programs.

More than 24,500 students. Rigorous academics, an energetic residential community in Norfolk, and initiatives that contribute $2.6 billion annually to Virginia's economy. Establishing a downtown presence in 2019.

NSU has a new strategic master plan for 2019-2025. A downtown incubator opened in April of 2019. The student enrollment is 4,700.

Coastal Virginia's premier university of the liberal arts and sciences. The University annually enrolls approximately 1,500 students in undergraduate, graduate, and online programs.

14th largest public two-year community college in the U.S. Largest undergraduate African American enrollment in Virginia higher education and 10th largest associate degree producer among two-year colleges for African American students.